A Bold Red Sheath with a Foldover Collar

Adorable, isn't it? The classic shape and bright hue would make it right for a variety of occasions.

A Pink Number with a Square Neckline

Like most dresses in the line, this one would suit a wide variety of body types, and comes in XXS all the way to plus-size L. This style's perfect if you want to draw attention away from your shoulders and towards your bust, for instance. And that pink is so romantic!

A Pale Blue Off-the-Shoulder Dress with Ruffled Skirt

This gown's so cute and girly, and shows Shabby's more muted color range—great for city weddings or brides with a thing for neutral color palettes.
