It rained on us, and we loved it.

A few weeks ago, Bluelily Photography came to our usual place-in the orchard where 3 years ago we took our first family photo. It poured. We ran in the streets and had a magical moment that only little children dream about. The rainbow after was amazing and I decided that life in Provo is beautiful. I will post more of the fabulous photos that were taken that evening. They MUST be shared.

**And** Please don't forget to vote for The Sweet Tooth Fairy's Cakebites here. And just for that, I think I'll give a lucky reader 3 dozen Cakebites. Go on The Sweet Tooth Fairy Facebook page here, "like" them and leave a comment on their wall. I will be randomly picking a winner next week! Cakebites can ship all over the country so everyone is eligible!!!

**Also** My post yesterday about Dr. J? Remember that? Well, here is his website. {my dress}
