Jean Paul Gaultier—one of the most important designers of recent decades—is getting his due with a major exhibition that runs until October 2 at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts. More of a contemporary installation than a fashion retrospective, “The Fashion World of Jean Paul Gaultier: From the Sidewalk to the Catwalk” features more than 120 looks, from his earliest collection in 1976 to haute couture (1997). mmfa.qc.ca —K.D.

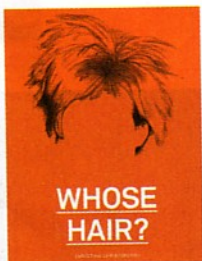

Stone Age

Brighten up your wardrobe with Shabby Apple's summer jewelry line, featuring Bohemian-inspired necklaces, rings and earrings made from brightly colored stones, beads and enamel. The gold-toned Fontana earrings shown here feature teal bevel-cut and petal-shaped stones. shabbyapple.com —L.A.

Coif Cues

Those fascinated by celebrities and the hairstyles they wear are going to love Whose Hair? (Laurence King, 2011) by London-based illustrator and artist Christina Christoforou. Packed with more than 200 images of pop culture's most memorable manes, the book lets readers guess who the legendary locks belong to and then draw in their famous faces. —K.D.

HOT CASE

Pack up your tools safely and stylishly with the Cinda B Flat Iron/Curling Iron Cover. Created by Atlanta-based interior designer and former TBS Movie and a Makeover design expert Cinda Boomershine, the carrying cases come in a variety of colorful patterns inspired by everything from Caribbean vacations and New York City streets to classic artwork and current fashion trends. The covers, which are sized to fit most styling tools and their cords, feature a heat-resistant lining to keep your suitcase's other items safe from harm and are stain- and water-resistant and machine washable. What's more, all bags in the Cinda B collection are made in the United States. cindab.com —L.M.

SHINE A LIGHT

With modern, heady scents like Tangerine, Basil & Red Currant; Cut Hay; Fresh Cut Bouquet; Tobacco Leaf; and Tuberose, it's no wonder fragrance aficionados have fallen in love with Saint Parfum candles. Handcrafted from a blend of essential oils, every candle in the luxe collection is hand-poured, boasts soy wax and cotton wicks and lasts up to 80 hours. saintparfum.com —K.D.
